

10 Essential Features for Document Capturing Technology

- 1 100% HIPAA compliant
Approved transmission and storage methods
- 2 Integrates seamlessly with your Electronic Health Record (EHR) System
Software “speaks” the same language
- 3 Designed specifically for healthcare
Features designed for healthcare provider users
- 4 Provides mobile-friendly (iOS and Android) application
Application available for anyone with a smart device
- 5 Scans high-definition images and documents
Approved transmission and storage methods
- 6 Double encryption to ensure secure data and documents
Enhanced security measures to protect data and documents
- 7 Remotely stores data and documents
Cloud storage minimizes theft vulnerability
- 8 Automatically recognizes, scans, measures, and tracks the progress of any chronic wounds
Advanced wound recognition technology
- 9 Eliminates paper
No more paper records to update and store
- 10 Simple user interface
Easy to use

Compliant and secure care coordination technology is no longer an "enhancement" for post-acute care providers; it is a necessity.

When evaluating Document Capturing Technology, make certain that you are able to manage to track all of your outstanding orders, referrals, labs, and other documents in one secure, cloud-based platform.

Learn more about Forcura's platform that includes every essential feature and more.

Learn More

